

QUILTSPEAK

October 10, 2011 The Congregational Church, 11245 Los Osos Valley Rd., SLO
 SLO Quilters, P.O. Box 14306, San Luis Obispo, CA 93406

Programs

Margaret Wheeler, Vicki Bookless, Lisa Gray, Suzanne Heitzman, and Melinda Monteen

SLO Quilters is turning 30! For 30 years our guild has been quilting—making quilts, learning about quilts, being inspired by quilters and donating quilts. We will be celebrating this milestone with our birthday bash at the October meeting. All the past presidents of SLO Quilters have been invited. Cake and punch will be served. It will be fun to see the charter members of the guild and find out more about our history.

Part of the October meeting will include the reveal of the Challenge quilts. Members will be invited to vote on their favorites. This is always a special and interesting experience to see what people have done for the challenge.

Last month we had the highly regarded Carol Taylor as our speaker and also for a work shop the following day. It was a great evening as Carol gave us an enthusiastic presentation. The “Arc-texture” workshop was well received by those who attended. The projects made in class are fantastic. Those members who took the class should bring their projects to show at the meeting.

Our November meeting will be a trunk show of quilts from one of our past presidents, Pam Munns. Pam will share a collection of her vibrant quilts.

Programs is looking forward to hosting our anniversary meeting. The Programs Committee hopes you will be able to join us for this very special meeting.

From Our “Prez”

Susan “Smitty” Price

30 Years!!! WOW!!! When I was volunteered to be president (thank you Emily), I hadn't quite made the connection that I would be the reigning president at the time of our 30th anniversary. What a privilege and honor this will be!

The Programs Committee has invited the 19 past presidents (some served for two years) to join us, so there's no pressure on me to run a great meeting!!! YIKES!

I DO hope you all are planning to come to the October 10th anniversary gala meeting?!?! Since the programs committee won't even share with me what they have up their sleeve for the 30th anniversary party, I'm sure it will be well worth attending!

The Library Challenge will come to fruition and those of us that have been busily working on our challenge quilts will get to submit them for everyone to see. Prizes will be awarded, so this should be fun to see what our fabulous quilters have created!

Note: Due to the party, the business part of the October meeting will be kept VERY short, but we will still be doing an abbreviated Community Quilts and Show 'n' Tell, so if you can save your Show N' Tell until November, that will help.

See you at the 30th Anniversary Party on October 10th!

Nominating Committee Report

Jill Sabol

Vicki Bookless, Suzanne Heitzman, Ginnie Murach, Jill Sabol, and Margaret Wheeler met and have the following slate of officers nominated for 2012:

President- Smitty Price
 Vice-President- Jodie Nelson
 Secretary- Loisann Cass
 Treasurer- Gail Simmons

These positions will be voted upon at the November meeting. Nominations can also be made from the floor at that time.

There are openings on the Board for non-elective positions such as Block-a-Month and Library. Also if you are interested in helping with Hospitality, Programs or Membership (in the capacity of Coffee Can Raffle assistance and manning the table when Julie Towery cannot attend meeting) please contact our President Smitty Price or one of the above Nominating Committee members.

The Library Corner

Gail Simmons and Judie Kirkhart

Just a short note to remind those who have entered the 30th Anniversary Challenge to bring in their quilt in a bag of pillowcase with your name on the outside and which category you are entering the quilt in. You will need to get it there by 6:00 p.m. in order to give Judie and I a chance to display and mark them for balloting.

500 Frog Project

At the August meeting, Barb Ignatius and Heidi Baird introduced the 500 Frogs Project for the children of Japan displaced by the tsunami, and handed out instructions to create pouches for this worthy cross-cultural exchange. One of our members, Ruth Meador, answered the call and responded with 50 pouches!

Many thanks to Ruth and her talents.

Here's one of the Japanese children picking out his frog.

Block a Month

Kathy Clarke and Paula Jaster

Block theme for the year: Stars
Block for August: Spinning Star
Block for September: Starstruck

The final step to our "make your own block a month" is to add a final sashing strip between each block that consists of a 16 1/2" by 2 1/2" strip of background fabric. When connecting the rows together, add the same strip with a 2 1/2" cornerstone using any of your star fabrics. Finally, add a border of your choosing. I like to add a border of background fabric as a first border to make the stars "float". Call me if you need more instructions . . . Kathy 466-1107. Please bring your finished quilt top to the November meeting.

Seven Sisters Challenge

Included with this newsletter is the application form for next year's Seven Sisters Challenge Quilt, and a sample of the fabric. The form is also available on our website.

The applications aren't due until February, but since we are limited in fabric, each guild only has 11 of the 12"x22" pieces of fabric. We hope some guilds won't use all of theirs, but some will want more, so if you want to do this challenge, don't wait for the February deadline. This is truly first-come first-served!

The SLO Quilters rep for this year is Smitty, so when you turn in your application and pay your $5 you will get your fabric.

Membership Message

Julie Towery

The membership maven has removed her hat and grabbed the crown of the coffee can queen. Lots of items to make up for lost time - bring lots of moola.

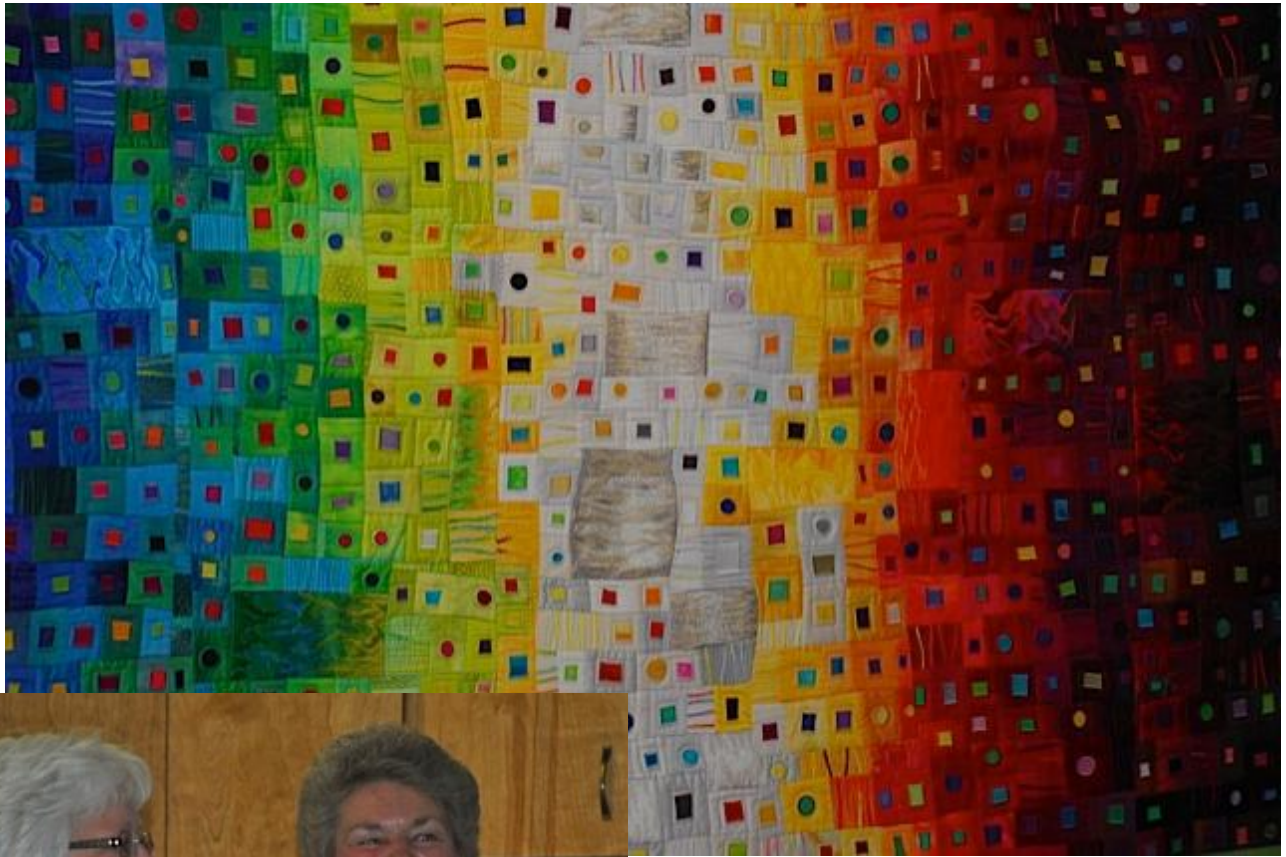

Christmas Stockings

Paula Jaster

Thank you quilters for the stockings turned in at the last meeting!!!! Please continue sewing so you can bring them to the October meeting. If you are unable to attend, please call me to arrange a drop off or pick up of them! I would like to receive most stockings by the October meeting so they can be turned in with plenty of time for filling and dispersal. We will also accept stockings at the November meeting, too, if needed. As in years past, you may also include items with which to fill them. Thanks again!!

Any questions, call Paula @ 215 0710. Happy sewing!

PS There will be a prize for most stockings turned in by a friendship group and another prize for most turned in by an individual!!!

Vicki introduces guest Carol Taylor to the guild.

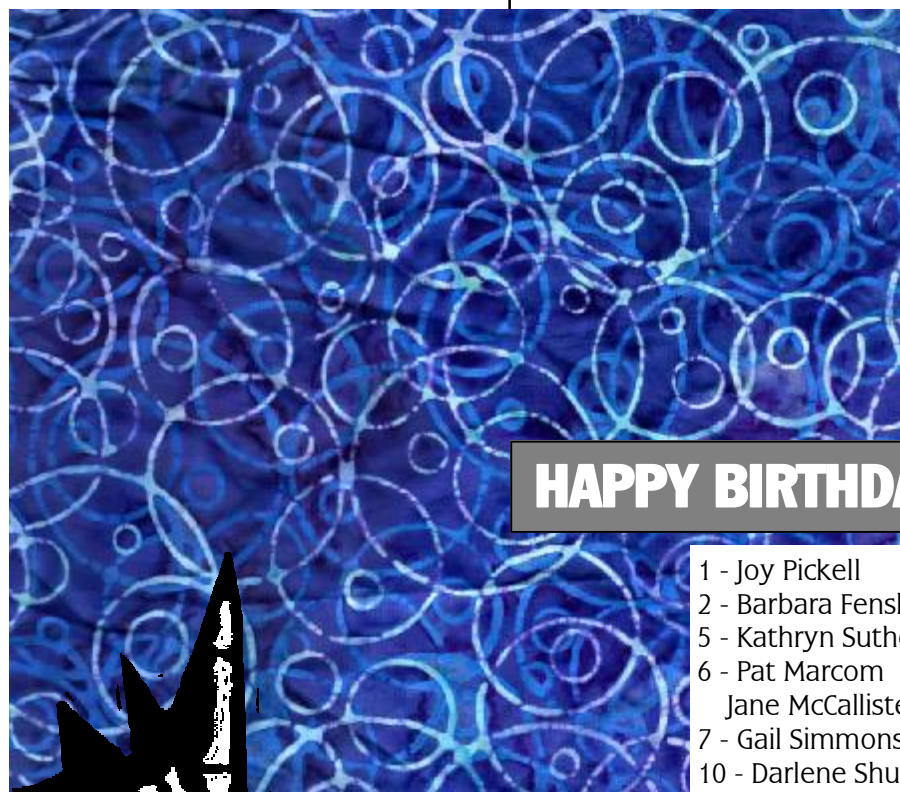

Quilt Stores' New Incentive

The quilt stores of the Central Coast have come up with a new incentive for purchasing at their store. Whenever you make a purchase from any of our local quilt stores (see list), tell them what guild(s) you are buying from and at the end of the month, the guild whose members have made the most purchases will get an extra door prize!!! Stores participating include: • The Quiltery (PR) • Quilters' Cupboard (A) • Sew Fun (A) • Cotton Ball (MB) • Betty's Fabrics (SLO & SM) • Quiltin' Cousins (PB) • Sew Stitchin' (GB) • The Quilt Attic (AG) • Old Town Quilt Shop (Orcutt)

Seven Sisters Small Quilt Challenge – April 28 &29, 2012

"Mother Earth Rejoices"

For our Fifth 'Sapphire' Anniversary, we are focusing on our 'blue' planet. Your quilt can be any design of your choice, using a VISIBLE amount of the challenge fabric and the theme, "Mother Earth Rejoices."

In your artist statement, explain how your quilt speaks to the theme!

Requirements:

- 1-The quilt must measure 18" x 22" inches (2" variance in either direction is OK), in either landscape or portrait orientation, and have at least a 2 1/2" sleeve.
2-Challenge fabric needs to be used in a VISIBLE amount on the quilt front. You can dye, bleach or reverse the fabric.
3-Your entry form and non-refundable $5 fee are due by February Guild Meeting to your guild challenge rep.
4-Your title and artist statement (no more than 40 words) is due by the March Guild Meeting to your guild challenge rep.
5-Submit your quilt in a cloth bag or pillowcase labeled with your name and guild, and turn into your guild challenge rep.
6-Your Challenge Quilt will be returned to you at your guild meeting following the show, via your guild challenge rep.

4 Prizes: Best Use of Challenge Fabric, Best Interpretation of Theme, Most Innovative, and Viewer's Choice. (Runner-up awards may be given out, depending on the number of entries.)
