What a fun meeting on January 9!
The thank-you presentations by Jill to Smitty, Marylu and Signe; the "Beginning" block-a-month showing; the creative Show and Tell quilts and on top of all that the buzz and laughter of happy quilters making their fabric origami flowers – a very enjoyable evening!

For February, Paul Howell will be talking to us about the History and Maintenance of our indispensable sewing machines. Your machine wants you to have this knowledge, so mark your calendar!

We have five more spaces for Christine Barnes' workshop on March 10. It will be at the church from 9 to 4 and the fee is $35 (including material fee). You will be able to sign up at the February meeting or you can email Vicki.

Machine embroidery expert, Flora Story, will have a trunk show for us in April.

The survey taken at the January meeting on machine quilting interests showed a large majority wanted contemporary, free-form instruction. This workshop will be scheduled in September.

Hope to see you all in February!

Happy New Year Everyone!

Pres. Susan "Smitty" Price

I hope you all are as excited about the Seven Sisters Show as I am! With six guilds participating this year, I KNOW we are going to have a DYNAMITE show!!!
Don't forget that your applications WITH A PHOTO are due at our February 13th meeting!!! (The actual due date for your application isn't until Feb. 15th, but since our meeting is on the 13th, you only have two days after our meeting, so there's not much fudge room.)
On another subject, Lindy Sullivan (our SCCQG Rep) and I went down to the SCCQG meeting in Buena Park in Mid-January. The topic was "What to do when you don't have a speaker." It was a nice program and we brought back some good ideas for our programs committee.

But what was MOST exciting was the number of hands that went up when I asked how many of them were planning to come to San Luis when WE, SLO Quilters, will be hosting their July 14th meeting!!!

As you know, people love to come to the Central Coast, so DO put Saturday, July 14th on your calendar, as we will be asking for some volunteers to help - more details as they unfold.

For now, what you need to know is that the meeting will be held Saturday, July 14th at the American Legion Hall, (the far end of the parking lot of the Vet's Hall).
Rooms have been set aside for them at the Holiday Inn, right across the street to make it easy for them to come up the night before.
I'm also in the process of 'sweetening the pot' to add additional fun reasons for them to come up - again, stay tuned for more details!!!

As most of you saw in the email I forwarded, there will be a HUGE "Meet the Teachers" on Saturday, April 14th in Carson. Not only will you be able to Meet fabulous quilt teachers, but there will also be vendors, quilts and LOTS of opportunity quilts (including ours), so if you can pop down for the day or overnight, I'm sure it will be WELL worth your time (translation
- free quilt show)!

So get back to your sewing machine and get those quilts far enough along to take a photo the design and layout committee can use to place your quilt in the most appropriate spot!

New Members

Julie Towery

New members who join between now and the end of June will pay only $10. Good time for you all to recruit members - we'll need all the folks we can get to work on the quilt show.

Coffee Can Raffle

Julie Towery

Just a few items this month because of the program, but they'll be interesting and worthy of your investments.

Community Quilts

Signe James

What a great year for community quilts...a grand total of 302!!! (A break down of the totals is in the minutes from the January meeting). That doesn't even count the 90 some quilts we sent to Japan in the spring. Thank you so much to each and every one of you who pieced a top, quilted a "bundle", made a quilt from scratch or donated fabric.

And speaking of donated fabric. Although I have more than will even fit in my closet, there are at times a few types of fabrics that we are completely missing or get used up real fast. We are always looking for teen boy fabric or fabric for older men. This can be sports, cars, motorcycles, outdoors, etc. A couple of such donations have come in lately and are greatly appreciated. This is just a reminder for those who may be sorting through their stash that we could use your leftovers from those quilts you made for sons, husbands, uncles, grandpas etc. Thanks for thinking of us.

Block A Month

Sue Fiscalini

The theme for February is "Love is . . ." What does it mean to you?

Since we started a new idea for Block a Month this year I will explain what we are doing. Every month I will give you a theme, then it is up to you and your imagination to make a block using that theme. The block can be pieced or appliquéd and any size you like. You can finish it into a little wall hanging or save your blocks to make a larger quilt at the end of the year. This is a good chance to try a new technique that you have always wanted to experiment with. I would love your ideas for themes, too!

The theme for January was "Beginning". It was great to see all the different ways everyone interpreted the theme. Also it is good to hear the explanations of the new techniques that were used.

Let's start thinking about March. The first thing that comes to my mind is green so lets see the different ways we can use our March theme - green!

Sew Days

Smitty Price

Since we have had numerous members request some Sew Days, now we need someone, or a friendship group, that would like to coordinate this. This would not be horribly time consuming, but our board members are pretty stretched. Anyone?

Opportunity Quilt

Smitty Price

Along with the fundraising ideas elsewhere in this newsletter, the first and easiest thing EVERY member can do is double up on the amount of tickets you sell for the opportunity quilt. If everyone just does that, we can DOUBLE the money we make - it's that simple.

I also would reiterate that everyone should send out an email, with the photo of the quilt to your friends, whether you think they would buy tickets or not, and you'll be AMAZED at the response! (They've emailed you for their causes, so now it's time you email them for your cause!)

Major Fund Raiser

Smitty Price

Along the theme of trying to get 'other peoples' money,' the board voted to participate in an existing event, such as the Strawberry Festival, Harbor Festival or Christmas in the Plaza. We don't know exactly which event we will be participating in yet (due to availability), HOWEVER, what we will need is for everyone to start making 'boutique items'.

It's been proven that our boutiques have always brought in good money and these types of fairs draw lots of people that want something unique to take home, so something handmade is always good. So while we're figuring out which event we will participate in, start making those items for the boutique!

Some of these items might include, but not be limited to:

- aprons
- potholders
- placemats
- napkins
- table runners
- fabric bowls
- totes
- grocery bags
- project bags
- silk scarves
- pillows
- small quilts
- baby blankets
- Christmas stockings
- Christmas ornaments

(whether or not we do the Christmas show, these types of shows ALWAYS have Christmas items that sell)

• knit and crocheted items (even though we're quilters, some of us also do these also and scarfs and mufflers are easy to make and can bring good money)
 • other items that can be easily made

2013 Small Quilt Auction

Smitty Price

Also at our board meeting, it was discussed that we schedule a Small Quilt Auction for late 2013. By doing that in 2013, it would be the alternate year from the Central Coast Quilters' Small Quilt Auction, which will be later this year. No decisions have been made yet and the suggestion would be that it truly BE a Small Quilt Auction, with a size limit, but again, nothing was decided. So be thinking about that.

Seven Sisters Show

Smitty Price

As you might have guessed, we will soon need volunteers from SLO Quilters for various jobs at the Seven Sisters Show, so be prepared to sign up.

Some clip boards will be going around at the February meeting and for sure at the March meeting, so be thinking about what you would like to do and be ready to sign up. Remember, the show is only a success if we ALL participate and do something.

Meeting Minutes

Lois Ann Cass

January 9, 2012

Meeting called to order at 7:00 pm by Pres. Smitty Price.

Hospitality – No guests. Board members stood and board members that missed last month were given a token of appreciation from Smitty for being on the board last year.

Announcements - Jill Sabol presented gifts to Smitty for her contribution as president and Signe James, Julie Towery and Marylu Meagher for their many hours spent volunteering for the guild. Jody Nelson, our VP, is being operated on for colon cancer at Sierra Vista and will be in the hospital for a few days and recuperating for six weeks. If you'd like you may send her a note of encouragement. Reminder to check the back table for upcoming quilt shows and information.

Fundraising – Bring in ideas on a fundraiser to get other people's money besides SLO quilters, to come to a function to raise money for the guild. One idea is to show the DVD Why Quilts Matter and charge for refreshments. AQGCC - There is a meeting Saturday, January 14 at Betty's. Seven Sisters Quilt Show - Susan Knowles volunteered to be the vendor representative for 2013 Seven Sisters Show. We also need a member to do publicity for the show. Gail Simmons, admissions, has a sign-up sheet for SLO Quilters to work admissions Saturday, April 28, 2012, 11:30 am -2:15 pm. Signe James, wearable arts, is accepting applications for wearable arts, a separate application. You can fill the form out on the computer or turn it into Signe. Meri Kay Gurnee, acquisitions, is accepting applications for quilts for the show.

Library – Heidi Baird - The library is open. Upcoming Programs – Vicki Bookless - Paul Howell will be the speaker in February: history and maintenance of home sewing machines. Christine Barnes will lecture on color at our meeting on Friday, March 9 and the workshop from 9 to 4 p.m. Saturday, March 10th. She is presenting a no sew, color workshop (fee is $35). The sign-up sheet for this class is being passed around this evening and payment is due (prefer checks) when you sign up. Opportunity Quilt – Val Lund – Smitty suggested we send out photo of quilt friends so they'd buy tickets. It's getting great responses, why not give it a try?

ZenTangle - Joyce Heddleson is offering classes on ZenTangle, which is like doodling. For more information 544-1090 or at joyceh7@charter.net

New Members - Cynthia Eastman, Joyce Heddleson and Barbara Watson

Coffee Can – Julie Towery. Door Prizes – Val Lund & Julie Tracy – Gifts donated by Betty's, Beverly's, Junk Girls (2) by Melissa James, Susan Branch (3), The Cotton Ball and Quiltin' Cousins. Community Quilts – Signe James – Year-end total for 2011 of donated quilts is 302, not including 90 sent to Japan. GOOD JOB!!! Signe acquired many quilts from an estate sale and finished them. Quilts donated to: SART-139, Chemo- 64, Adult Chemo- 58, Baby-13, Nursing home-8, Quilts of Valor-9, Get on the Bus- 6, and Homeless 5. Block a Month – Sue Fiscalini - Nine people made a BOM with the theme 'Beginnings.' Next month's block will be Love Is.

Show and Tell. Make & Take Project – origami flowers. Vicki Bookless, Melinda Monteen, & Ginnie Murach of the Program Committee, presented an origami flower project we did tonight. They passed out packets of fabric for the flowers, directions and demonstrated how to fold and tack the petals and put together the flowers. Many members participated and some finished their flowers this evening. Meeting adjourned at 9 p.m.

Beacon Art Show

Judi Carlyle

Artists are invited to enter the Beacon Art Show at the San Luis Obispo United Methodist Church. The details can be found at sloumc.com. Scroll down to Beacon Art Show on the left. The deadline for entries is Feb. 7.

White Glovers Needed

White Glove volunteers are needed for the Seven Sisters Quilt Show April 28-29. Judi Carlyle will have the sign up sheet.

Free-motion Quilting Resource

Vicki Bookless

Thank you for your responses to the survey at the January meeting regarding free-motion quilting! For those of you interested in free-form free-motion machine quilting ideas, check out Leah Day's "Free Motion Quilting Project" at www.freemotionproject.com.
