October 8 Guild Meeting

Scandinavian Stars – a “Make ‘n’ Take” experience. Julie Tracy will be guiding us through the star-making process. You’ll need to bring four pieces of fabric for your star that measures 12”x3¼ “. If you like Christmas stars, think about snowflake or icicle fabric. Julie has provided the website that demonstrates how to make the star project for the October meeting. <https://craftingarainbow.wordpress.com/2015/12/06/scandinavian-fabric-stars/>

After watching the video, it might be helpful to press your four pieces of fabric before the meeting. Irons could be in short supply. It will also be helpful to bring small scissors, tweezers and a binding clip. Looks like a fun project.

November 12 Guild Meeting

The UFO reveal is finally here. Those that signed up to complete their UFOs will have an opportunity to share their completed projects. Wahoo!!! If

Oh my gosh, October!

Summer is winding down and I feel like the time until the end of the year starts accelerating. For us quilters, time is precious to complete projects for the holidays and am I the only who finds people "suggesting" what they could really use this year is a quilt? My family has gotten the talk; I can only make a certain amount of projects, I work full-time!

I am looking forward to this month's meeting, a make and take by our own Julie T. I am asking all the members to consider volunteering for Programs, we need at least two more people to help Julie next year. Both Robbie and Barbara are willing to help train new people for this job and it is important for our guild. They have done a great job and already set up speakers and workshops for 2019 so some of the work is already done.

Bear Valley has opened a workshop to us by Jean Impey. Please check the info on our newsletter.

Here's a little visitor outside my window at work, stocking up for the winter no doubt.

you need a reminder of what you promised to share, drop Barbara McPherson an email at, blueskybarbara27@gmail.com and she'll let you know.

December 10 Guild Meeting

SLO Quilters Annual Holiday

Potluck Dinner. The dinner will begin at 6:00pm. The menu is 'bring your favorite potluck dish.' You don't want to miss out on the games and prizes. There will be a prize for everyone. Let's have some fun!!!

Community Quilts

Signe James

The Redding Quilt Guild has put out a call for help in coming up with over 1,000 quilts to give to the victims of the Carr Fire who lost everything. Usually we have set aside a few larger, really nice quilts for such occasions. This time we had a supply of appropriate tops, so these were distributed out and are coming back now. We will be sending five large lap quilts and six kids' quilts which we have on hand. It's nice to know they will be put to such good use.

Meeting Minutes

September 10, 2018

Meeting called to order by President Dian R at 7 PM

Announcements: SCCGQ is asking for new quilts for a special exhibit called New Quilts of Southern California at the Jan 2019 Road to California show. Details are on the SCCQG website. Kaffe Fassett will be doing a book signing at Baywood Tavern Sept 26th. The Redding Quilt Guild is collecting quilts for Carr fire victims. Their goal is get one quilt for each household who lost their home. Susan K will be driving through Redding at the end of the month and will drop off any quilts that are donated before that, saving on postage.

Community Quilts: Twenty-five quilts were turned in this evening.

Hospitality: Many lovely prizes as always.

Seven Sisters Quilt Show: Irene announced that the Youth category will now be 18 and under. Previously the youngest children were not included. Barbara McP gave the Challenge Theme, A Touch of Red. The size can vary as long as the total perimeter measurement is not greater than 80 inches. Robbie B is collecting fat quarters for the raffle prizes.

Show and Tell: Lovely, interesting quilts as always.

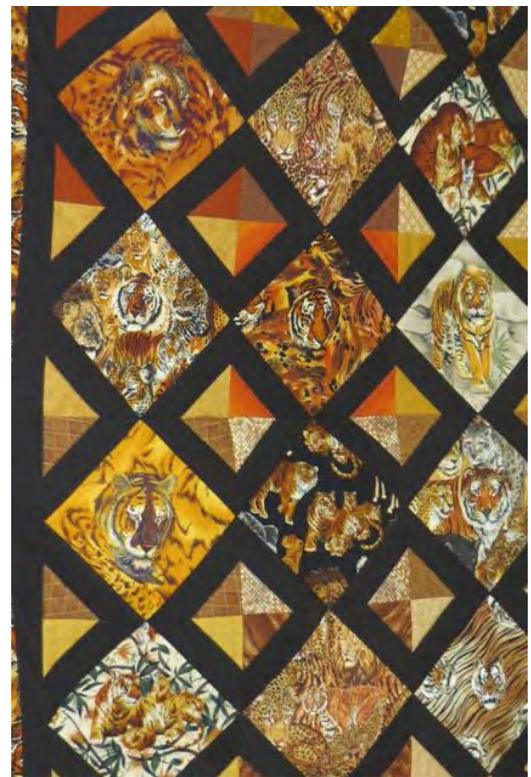

Programs Julie T described the Make and Take project for next month's program. We will make Scandinavian fabric stars which will each require 4 pieces of fabric, 12" x3 1/4" each. Some fabric will be available but if you wish to choose your own you can bring the fabrics of your choice. Supplies that will be helpful are a tweezers and Clover binding clips.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 PM followed by a trunk show by Sue Fiscalini.
